From the Pastor's Desk

When we go through our daily lives do we think about evangelism? Do you ever make excuses for why you do not share your faith? I do! This article offers practical ways to slow down your week, and be intentional in our community. I hope and pray that we will be engaging our community for Gospel of Christ. I hope that this article challenges and helps you with your evangelism in your daily life. The link is:

This Sunday

This Sunday Pastor Danny Estave continues "The Story," with "Part 3: Redemption" from Luke 23:32-43. See you this Sunday!

Quarterly Conference & Wednesday Night Supper

Members, please plan to attend our next Quarterly Conference on Wednesday, February 1st at 6:30 pm, and take part in the decision-making process at CRBC.

There is a church supper just prior to the conference at 5:30 pm, with baked ziti, salad, garlic bread & dessert. If you would like to reserve dinner, please contact Juanita Henson, or fill out the blue card in the pew Sunday morning.

Listening Session / Public Forum - Autism Services

The North Carolina Division of Medical Assistance and the Division of Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities and Substance Abuse Services seek input from citizens and other stakeholders on the proposed Research-Based Behavioral Health Treatment service for youths with Autism Spectrum Disorder.

This presentation will provide an overview of the draft Medicaid Research-Based Behavioral Health Treatment service for youths with Autism Spectrum Disorder.

The meeting will take place in the CRBC fellowship hall (6001 Creedmoor Road, Raleigh), on Thursday, February 2nd from 5-8 pm.

Spring Senior Adult Rally

All seniors are invited to attend the Spring Senior Adult Rally at Salem Baptist Church in Apex on Tuesday, March 28th.

David Moore, Bob Cratchit in Raleigh's Christmas Carol for more than 20 years, will be the keynote speaker. David recently retired after 38 years with the Baptist State Convention of NC serving with Campus Ministry, Christian Life and Public Affairs and then in Leadership Development and Pastoral Ministries. He has a heart and passion to help churches working as a coach and an encourager.

Our singing entertainment will be by the four Hall Sisters who sing and play the piano, cello, violin and viola. Yes, we have heard them before and they are very talented!

The menu will consist of barbecue chicken, boiled potatoes, green beans, rolls, tea and desserts.

The cost is $15.00 per person (checks made payable to RBA). This is the first increase in three years and I know you will agree that it will be time and money well spent!! We plan to carpool and will leave CRBC at 8:30 am. If you are able to attend or have any questions, please see Pat Danieley.

Facebook Live and Growing Pains

There was a glitch in the Facebook page last Sunday which affected our Facebook Live feed. We are working with Facebook to resolve the problem, and hopefully we will be up and running again this Sunday. Thank you for your patience during this time. An audio recording of Sunday's sermon is available on the CRBC website.
