This Sunday at CRBC and on Facebook ...

Elisha had a good life, but God was calling him to something greater. The call of Elisha is really extreme when you really look at what God asked of him, but if Elisha could have seen what God was offering, he would have chosen it 1,000 times over.

This Sunday at 11AM, Pastor Danny will show that you are offered the exact same thing. Elisha is given as a prototype of how Jesus calls you to something greater. God has a plan for your life, a plan that is greater than anything that you could imagine, much greater than the plan that you are on right now.

Join us this Sunday at 11AM at CRBC or on Facebook.

Deacon Nominations

This summer CRBC will be electing at least 2 deacons. Before forwarding a name to the nominating committee, please read the following: Deacons shall be elected from active, resident male and female members over the age of 21. The primary task of the deacon is to provide pastoral ministries through the Deacon Family Ministry Plan. The description of the position is as follows:

Description

In accordance with the meaning of the work and practice in the New Testament, deacons are to be servants of the church. The task of the deacon is to support the pastor in his leading the church, proclaiming the gospel and caring for members of the church and community. Deacons are not granted any administrative authority. Their activities should be guided by the ideal of serving as servants of the church.

Duties

- To serve the Lord's Supper.
- To minister to assigned church member families, providing for the family: regular prayer, friendship, emotional support, witnessing to family members, assistance in answering faith, church, or denominational questions, promoting fellowship with other members, helping members find a place of service within the church, visits and special attention to widowed, shut-in, hospitalized, or ill members.
- To support the leading and work of the pastor in: sharing the gospel, promoting unity within the church, addressing any murmuring or grumbling within the church, providing a proper example for church members, including regular attendance and participation in church activities.

Qualifications

Biblical: The Biblical qualifications are listed in 1 Timothy 3:8-13 (HCSB), as follows:

Deacons, likewise, should be worthy of respect, not hypocritical, not drinking a lot of wine, not greedy for money, holding the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience. And they must also be tested first; if they prove blameless, then they can serve as deacons. Wives, too, must be worthy of respect, not slanderers, self-controlled, faithful in everything. Deacons must be husbands of one wife, managing their children and their own households competently. For those who have served well as deacons acquire a good standing for themselves, and great boldness in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

Other Constitutional Requirements

- Active church member for at least one year and in good standing.
- No two members of one immediate family (the same household) will serve as deacon at the same time.

The Numbers from Sunday
