This Sunday on Facebook and YouTube...

This Sunday, Pastor Danny will begin a timely 4-week series dealing with the COVID-19 crisis called Pand-emotions: Navigating Chaos.

Are you struggling? Were things in your life going well and then in an instant, things flipped and you are wondering how long will this last? King David asked the same question to God.

During this time, how can we possibly replace our despair with trust? Join us on Facebook or YouTube this Sunday at 11am as we look to Psalm 13 to see how we can trust God even in the midst of our pain.

Remembering Annie Armstrong, Mastermind Behind the WMU

Annie Walker Armstrong was born into a wealthy family in Baltimore, Maryland on July 11, 1850, at a time when there was little opportunity for women. Yet her admiration of and devotion to Christ led her to lead a life of service and leadership.

At a young age, Annie attended missionary meetings with her mother and developed a heart for missions. She organized women to pray, give, and to respond to the needs of others around them. In May of 1888, Annie helped women from 12 states form the Executive Committee of Woman's Mission Society and in 1890, it officially became known as the WMU (Woman's Missionary Union). Annie also encouraged pastors and churches to recognize and support the need for, and the needs of, missionaries. She is recognized as a national Southern Baptist trailblazer for her visionary leadership that still inspires us today. Annie believed it was a glorious opportunity for her to be a co-worker with God in winning the world for Christ.

Please remember to pray for the health, safety, and strength of Christian missionaries all over the world, and to thank God for the dedicated life of one of His obedient servants, Annie Walker Armstrong.
