This Sunday at CRBC and on Facebook ...

There are some things that just do not go together, like oil and water, or Duke and football. Paul, in this passage, shows us that you cannot have Christianity and the views of the world. These two things do not go together and we have to choose.

Join us this Sunday at 11AM at CRBC or on Facebook as Pastor Danny Estave shares a Holy Community.

Baptist Children's Homes Wins National Award

Our own Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina was recently recognized as one of the 2021 Best Nonprofits to Work for. This national award was presented by The NonProfit Times, the leading publication for nonprofit managers, along with the Best Companies Group, identified 50 organizations throughout the US whose leaders have "excelled in creating quality workplaces."

Selection for this award involved a two-part process: Part One - analysis of workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems, and demographics. Part Two - results from employee surveys to "measure the employee experience." BCH placed 30th in this nation-wide competition, and was one of only 6 large nonprofits to receive this award. This recognition aligns well with BCH's leadership approach and their vision statement and commitment to a "caring culture of measurable excellence."

We concur with the congratulatory message from Dr. Michael Blackwell, President & CEO of BCH: "We are deeply honored to receive this recognition. It is a reflection of the professional excellence exhibited by our 350 employees across the Carolinas. Excellence permeates our culture."

We are thankful for these homes who continue to serve men, women, and children with not only a safe, happy place to live, but more importantly, a home where the Word and love of God through Jesus is taught and lived.

Children's Church Is Back

CRBC has resumed Children's Church on Sunday Mornings. We began last Sunday with the story of creation and will continue in Genesis this Sunday. Children are dismissed for Children's Church during the Sunday Worship Service just prior to the sermon, and is for children 3 years old through 2nd grade.

The Numbers from Sunday

Last Sunday morning, there were 38 in attendance. $2,480 was given to the General Fund. Thank you church!
